Spirit Week Coordinator

Project Q&A is looking for an individual passionate about raising visibility for the queer community in rural America. Project Q&A is the leading nonprofit organization working to educate, empower, and raise visibility for the over 2.9 million LGBTQ individuals who call rural America home.

The Spirit Week Coordinator will work with the Executive Director to develop a week-long event that works toward Project Q&A's mission of raising visibility. Q&A Spirit Week is the last week of March that encompasses the 31st. This celebration honors Gilbert Baker, the creator of the iconic Pride flag, who happened to be from rural Kansas. The ideal candidate will be innovative and can utilize design thinking processes to develop an engaging and sustainable program. This position is perfect for a volunteer passionate about art and queer artist as well as someone who enjoys educating rural communities on queer issues, empowering individuals to create change, and raising LGBTQ visibility.

Requirements:

- Project Management
- Management Skills
- Leadership Skills
- Detailed Oriented
- Creative and Innovative
- Promotional Skills
- And other duties as assigned.
- Preferably located in Kansas, but not limited to this geographic area.

Monthly Time Commitment: 10+ Hours

The time commitment for this position fluctuates depending on project needs. Most of the time will take place leading up to Spirit Week, which occurs at the end of March and early April.

How to Apply:

Please send a resume and brief statement (500 words or less) of why you want to serve in this role. Please include in your statement any unique skills or talents you will bring to Project Q&A. Send your resume and statement to Brandon West, Executive Director, brandon@projectqna.org, with the position as the subject line. Applications are also available at projectqna.org/take-action.

Project Q&A Inc. celebrates diversity and is committed to creating an inclusive environment for all individuals to thrive in their roles to serve the LGBTQIA+ community.
